Linework Ornaments Class

KIM GARRETT will be teaching a Linework Ornaments class via Zoom on December 11, 12 and 14, 2023. This class will guide students through linework strokes and designs for six ornaments in various styles. The classes will be from 6:30 – 8:30pm. Any student with at least one previous rosemaling strokework class is encouraged to sign up for the class to improve their linework while creating these beautiful ornaments using Kim's original Scandinavian designs.

We will be painting ornaments (circle, horse, diamond, heart) from the Etsy shop CraftCutConcepts. Detailed ordering information will be in the email confirming your registration for the class. The approximate cost of the ornaments is $25.00 depending on shipping to your home. Brush and paint information is also in the supply list. Patterns will be provided prior to class.

Brush and paint information is

Kim has taught at Duluth Folk School, Ely Folk School, North House Folk School, Vesterheim Norwegian American Museum, and for rosemaling organizations in the Midwest. Kim is currently on the board of Rosemaling Coast to Coast and writes for the Rosemaling Letter, a Vesterheim publication. Kim and her friend, Patti Goke, have started a business, Nordic Canvas Folk Art Studio, sharing various folk arts through virtual classes. "Kim Garrett has been rosemaling since 2007 and has studied with several "Gold Medal" winning American rosemalers. She has traveled to Norway four times to study traditional 18th century rosemaling design with Norwegian rosemaling instructors. She has also taken lessons in Sweden in the Swedish folk art painting style, Dalmålning. She has won several blue ribbons at the MN state fair for her rosemaling and received the Best in Show twice." - Ely Folk School

Registration begins now and ends December 4. Public registration begins in one week. There are 20 seats available in the class. There will be no refunds unless there is a student from a waitlist to take the vacated place.
