Animals in Rosemaling class with Louise Bath

The Illinois Norsk Rosemalers Association is excited to have Louise Bath (VGM) teach a three-week class on the use of animal images in rosemaling, March 6, 13 & 20, 2024, 6:30-9pm, Central. The class project is a wooden treasure box. Louise has painted around the animals on her box in the Setesdal style but students can use whatever style they prefer, such as Telemark or Hallingdal. Louise has used a combination of oils and acrylics on her box and students may use either or both mediums in this class.

The class project piece is the Lancaster Box without handles by Turn of the Century Wood Products. Size is 9.5"x5.75" x 8". The box may be ordered using this information: Jan Boettcher, 4505 W. 650 N., THORNTOWN, INDIANA 46071, 765-436-2647, or by visiting <http://www.etsy.com/shop/TurnofthecenturySHOP>. Please place your order by February 20 to ensure on time delivery for class. The woodenware price is $29.00 plus shipping. Shipping costs will be figured by your ship to address.

INRA members will have one week for advanced registration for this class. Information about the class will be available on the INRA website and Facebook page as well as rosemalingclasses.com for the public starting January 31. Please order your project piece early to allow for creation and shipping time. Class registration will end February 20 or when the class is full.

Artist Biography:

Louise Bath first took rosemaling classes in Denver over 30 years ago, but it was her first class at Vesterheim in 2005 that started her on the journey to a Vesterheim Gold Medal, which she was awarded in 2017. She has been teaching rosemaling at the Trollheim Sons of Norway Lodge, in Lakewood, CO, since 2012, and for Vesterheim since 2017. Three trips to Norway have given her a wealth of rosemaling knowledge and ideas. Completing a certificate in Botanical Art and Illustration from the Denver Botanic Gardens in 2017 has added to her knowledge of technique and composition. She strives to give her rosemaling students not only a grounding in painting techniques, but also a review of the history and examples of the regional style.
