

Illinois Norsk Rosemalers Association Class Announcement Monochromatic Scenes and Borders with Lois Mueller

The Illinois Norsk Rosemalers Association is excited to announce our first 2025 class. Lois Mueller will be teaching a Zoom class introducing students to monochromatic scenes and borders used in the Valdres style of rosemaling. These borders can be used in most rosemaling styles. This is a skill class. Work will be done on practice boards.

The class will be held in two Zoom sessions on Saturday, February 8, 9am – Noon and 1pm – 4pm. This a total of 6 hours. All sessions are listed in Central time.

Students will need to know their strokes and independently prepare their practice boards prior to class. Lois recommends the class for those at the advanced beginner level and up. Lois will be teaching the class in acrylics. She is an experienced oil painter and oil painters are welcome in this class. A supply list will come with your registration confirmation.

TEACHER BIOGRAPHY:

Lois Mueller is a Vesterheim Gold Medalist and INRA member. She has been rosemaling since 1977 and has studied with various artists in Norway and America. Lois is the past President of Rosemaling Coast to Coast. In addition to the many classes Lois teaches, she and her husband, Ron, own Nordic Designs of Wisconsin which offers jewelry that uses stones from the Scandinavian countries, books, packets, and woodenware.
